

Humanitarian Service Worker

BURMAN
UNIVERSITY

www.burmanu.ca

Steve Matthews, Executive Director
Adventist Development and Relief Agency Canada

"We are confident that this humanitarian certificate program will benefit all who will participate in this important endeavor in helping to make a difference through service in changing this world."

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

The world is becoming an increasingly turbulent place creating opportunities to serve where the need is greatest. Students in this program will learn from experts and practitioners how the world has been negatively impacted by disasters and how they can act to bring help and recovery to heal a broken world.

Humanitarian Service

CERTIFICATE DETAILS

Participants in this one-year online program will receive a solid foundation in the core areas of humanitarian service, develop relationships with potential employers, and gain experience in the field through practicum.

Career Opportunities

Humanitarian educator

Humanitarian advocate

Humanitarian aid worker

Diplomacy

Project assistant

Program assistant

Foreign service

Dr. Ellison Obisike

Chair, Wellness Program
Burman University

"I strongly believe that the graduates of this program will be equipped with the skillset that will help them positively impact the lives of individuals and families who are struggling with various life situations. There is a projected need for human service workers in both urban and rural areas of the province, across Canada, and internationally."

QUESTIONS? CONTACT US.

Marketing and Enrolment

6730 University Drive
Lacombe, Alberta T4L 2E5

P: 403.782.3381 ext. 4127

E: info@burmanu.ca

W: burmanu.ca/humanitarian

UNIQUE OPPORTUNITIES

- Students will complete a practicum with a humanitarian organization, putting into practice the skills and knowledge they have developed, and train to be prepared for a meaningful role in humanitarian work.

Facebook: Burman University
Twitter: @burmanuniv
Instagram: @burmanuniversity
www.burmanu.ca

BURMAN
UNIVERSITY